Deaf individuals have made numerous contributions in history. Find out who:

- received the "Godfrey Copley Medal" and has a College named after him.
- attended Rutgers and founded the Society for Hearing Impaired Physicians (SHIP).
- over a 40 year period is credited with saving 907 lives!
- patented over 1,093 inventions.
- started the Battle of Wounded Knee.
- was the first deaf pilot to fly coast to coast in 1947.
- broke a world land speed record for the fastest quarter mile in 3.22 seconds at 396 mph.

and much, much more!
